ORCHESTRA CONCERT BEST EVER GIVEN

[By Gazette Correspondent.]
Milton, March 17.—The Saint Patrick's day concert of the Milton college orchestra was by far the best ever given by that organization. The concert was held yesterday, with interment in the North Geneva cemetery. The orchestra was excellent for there was just enough variety of selection that maintained the high classical standard of music. The orchestra has always kept and at the same time pleased popular taste.

The conductor, Pres. W. C. Daland, Milton College, is to be congratulated for bringing together out of a small community more than 40 players who produce orchestral music that is not to be excelled in the whole state.

Miss Mabelle A. Farr, Milwaukee Downer college, with her two reading selections from "Much Ado About Nothing," and "The Taming of the Shrew," charmed the audience with the delightful humor of the first reading and left a deep serious impression with the second.

The best musical number on the program was the piano concert played by Miss Alberta "Crandall" with orchestral accompaniment. Miss Crandall is an acknowledged master of the instrument and brought out with exquisite coloring the lights and shadows of the Mendelssohn music.

"The Marriage Overture" and Haydn's second symphony, one of his most famous, were exceedingly good and the contrasting strains of the wind instruments were effective.

In marked contrast to these more brilliant pieces was the also sweet dreamy music of the Mendelssohn "Nocturne" and "The Valse Lente."

And last but not at all least came the rollicking melody of Irish music which ended the concert and left the audience reluctant to break the witching spell of the music and the riotously colored stage and go home.

MONROE IN MIX-UP OVER STREET FLUSHER

[By Gazette Correspondent.]
Monroe, March 17.—The city council held its recent action for the purchase of a street flusher at the meeting Tuesday night. The action to rescind was taken upon motion of C. C. Blumer for the Blumer Mfg. & Sales company, who had been awarded the contract for the new flusher as agent of the International company whose flusher had been selected.

On the former action the city advised the bids. Six bids were received and were turned over to the street committee for consideration and recommendation. The committee eliminated two of the bids and was undecided between the White and International truck carrying a Sludebaker flusher. The committee solving the matter to the council saying both were good and asked the council as a whole to decide. The White bid was nearly $200 higher than the International, but according to the committee little advantage by either machine in specification.

The charge of illegality, "framing-up," etc., because Mr. Blumer was a member of the council, came a few days later. The point was raised that Blumer, as a member of the council, could not legally vote on the question and raised a technical point of law. The law would not permit Mr. Blumer to vote as an individual but it would as a representative of the council.

It was on this assurance that Blumer voted on the matter in the council. With six councilmen present three voted for the White and three for the International and Mayor Eitter decided the tie in favor of the International.

Chicago, March 19.—Crack swimmers of six middle western colleges tonight will decide the finals in the annual conference swimming championships.

One national intercollegiate record was broken last night when J. Meagher of the University of Chicago clipped 2-5 seconds from the old mark for the sixty foot plunge, covering the distance in 18-2-5.

Five contests are on the program tonight, the forty yard free style, 200 yard breast stroke, 200 yard free style, 100 yard free style and 150 yard back stroke. Swimmers from Northwestern, Northwestern, Chicago, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota have qualified.

BEAUTY VOTES TO RETAIL AT NICKEL

The beauty contest begins Monday morning when Margaret Bailey and Elizabeth Sayles will sell votes in the main room at five cents apiece. Those who are leading in the contest will be announced each day. The contest will close Wednesday evening, but the most beautiful girl will remain a secret until the picture comes out containing her best picture.

MORE DISKS NEEDED FOR MUSIC CONTEST

More victrola records are needed to carry on the music memory contest in the schools of the city. R. D. Harmon, Chamber of Commerce, said today that the parochial schools entered the contest this week. Victrolas have been furnished to these schools by the music dealers, but the shortage of records is such that only be remedied by individuals loaning them. Information regarding selections which are needed will be given by calling at the Chamber of Commerce.

People of Argentina
Always Ready for Bet

Buenos Aires.—The people of Argentina like to take a chance on a betting proposition. This is shown by the fact that last year they bet altogether $175,000,000 on horse races, in lottery tickets, roulette, sports or other means of gambling, says La Razon.

Argentina's population is about 8,000,000 so that the average gambling by each person was $22 a year. La Razon gives these figures in urging that all gambling should be under government supervision and that the proceeds should be placed used for public benefit.

Warning of Storms May Be Received by Wireless

Louisville, Ky.—Wireless equipment has been installed in general offices here and several division headquarters by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company for the purpose of estimating the value of radio as an auxiliary to telegraphic and telephonic service. It is announced here by R. B. Hobbs, superintendent of telegraph for the company.

"If the scheme proves practicable," he asserted, "it will enable the company to receive forecast of gulf storms direct and will facilitate shipments of material to that section after storms because the wireless apparatus will not be destroyed by such events. It may also be used on moving trains."

Live Model

At The Varsity

Leslie K. Lear, representing Stratford Clothes, Chicago, is in town to display the latest spring models in the window of "The Varsity" this afternoon and evening. The styles for men this spring are high waisted, both single and double breasted, one, two and three button coats. One outstanding feature of the Stratford line is the fact that none of the garments contain any inner linings but are composed of the same cloth all the way through. This adds wonderfully to the appearance and creates quite a bit of comment from both sexes. See the garments modeled before your eyes this afternoon and evening in the window of "The Varsity."

FORWARD, JANESVILLE!

To make Janesville a better place in which to live and in which to do business, the Gazette pledges itself to work for and support these things:

Housing survey to discourage exorbitant rental; encouragement of building more houses; appraisal of property values so that rent profiteers may be made to pay the increased amount of taxes.

Open roads in the country 365 days of the year; better roads generally, and support of the road building plans; better streets and more paved streets in the city.

A market pavilion in the city which may also be used for many other purposes by farmers and livestock producers.

A community building to be used for auditorium, sport events, meetings, rest rooms, and also as a fitting memorial for soldiers.

Open the churches seven days a week and stop economic waste in room and time. Make basements meeting places for the young, and provide gymnasium facilities.

Build a real home for the girls who come here to work.

Open the fair grounds this year as a recreation park with tennis courts and other play apparatus. Establish parks and playgrounds.

Better the street car service as population increases.

LESSONS FROM BLACKHAWK.

Only a few hundred Indians of the tribe which knew Black Hawk as its chief, now exist. Thousands of their fellows are dead in the advancing march of the white man. Some of the historians deprecate the killing of Indians, sometimes ruthlessly, sometimes akin to cold murder. It is easy to grow sentimental at this distance of years. But savage as it was on the part of the white men, it was only a part of that evolutionary change which has been going on since the world began. Before Black Hawk, long before his tribe lived in Wisconsin and Illinois, there was another race, far more civilized than he and his. The ancestors of Black Hawk killed these men and women and none were left? They exist only in the mounds and examples of their handicraft in stone and metal.

Black Hawk's autobiography, the first chapters of which will be in the Gazette tomorrow, is a book of satisfaction on the part of the man who tells the story. His only regret is that he lost. With all his cunning he was superstitious. Ignorance is the mother of superstition. Versed in nature and her ways only as he saw and could teach and feel, yet the warrior of the Foxes was a child dominated by fear of those phenomena for which he could not account. That is the way of all ignorance. It attributes to some unseeable power the things that cannot be explained by the most obvious facts.

It is 58 years since Black Hawk and his people were driven from Wisconsin. That is only the life time of a well preserved man. In the place of the far-reaching forests and prairies are homes and people. Here we have had individuality and ambition. Here we have had discontent and progress. There can be no progress where there is content. The hobo and the beggar were our best examples of content. Black Hawk and his people, like the hobo, were contented so long as they had food for the tribe. Clothing was a secondary thought. True socialism existed in the tribe. That was one reason why it vanished. Its very socialism was its weakness. Standard of efficiency in peace and war depended on these weaklings as much as it did on the strong.

Greed moved the white man as the one commanding reason for his coming to the fields and forests of Black Hawk. The other motive was his freedom. Just now we are not so sure of the future. Superstition has been largely wiped out. But we still have greed. Ideals are fading. We have become a nation of money grubbers. We measure practically everything by the yard-stick of dollars and cents. All that was conducive to happiness in the tents and huts of Black Hawk's people was what we are striving for—what better brought to him, what money will buy for us. He was the better favored, for he needed no money. But his ideals were as lacking as ours. The autobiography of Black Hawk is an interesting book. You will read in it the mind of an Indian. But you will also read there many of the attributes of the men you meet daily. It will be worth your while.

THE END OF THE ROAD.

A week ago the Gazette started to discover if possible the true condition of the roads of the county and vicinity. Correspondents were asked about the roads in their neighborhood. The replies have been of a monotonous sameness. "Bad!" "Worse!" "Impassable!" "Mails delayed or not delivered at all!" Of course it is too late to do anything this year. But every interest should be combined to see that another year does not find an isolated county. The only profiteers from the bad roads are the mail order houses. Merchants in cities and villages are losers. Farmers are losers. Quickly getting products to market is the big advantage for the farmer. He owns an auto, and the horse-drawn vehicle no longer suffices him. But he is like the Arctic Esquimaux in his isolation without open roads.

AN ECHO OF THE WAR.

One more echo of the war is heard from Wisconsin in the trial of a case in Outagamie county having to do with allegations of intimidation and assault by men who were in war work and selling Liberty bonds. Back of the suit is the leader of the Non-Partisan league in Wisconsin and a La Follette candidate for delegate to the national convention of republicans, C. B. Ballard. It is a notorious fact that there was an organized sentiment in Wisconsin against participation in all patriotic effort. We are deporting government enemies now. They got off easily in the war. Many of them either openly aiding the enemy or silently acquiescing in enemy acts, were met with in war efforts. They should have been happy to get off as easily as they did. It will be interesting to watch the outcome of Mr. Ballard's suit and what a jury will do in Outagamie, a county that went over the top in all drives for war work.

SOVIET IN GERMANY.

One thing the military revolution has established—that is the emphatic fact that the German people are not at all keen for the return of the imperial family and the old rule of the Junkers and the Kaiser or his offspring. While it is impossible to say with clarity just what has been back of all the events of the last few days it is plain that the common people are determined to rule Germany. The only way they know is by the establishment of the rule of the soviet. This is a delusion because wherever it has been worked out, it be-

THE EQUAL CHANCE.

"To never had a chance," said he.
How often do we hear it said
By men whose every hope is dead?
"No chance the world has given me
To come to fame and forge ahead."

No chance! the very breath of life
Is all the chance which God bestows
On men from birth unto the close.
He who has strength to face the strife
Lives all his happier brother knows.

He who has strength to work and wait
Is well equipped for every care.
He can do all that he will dare.
Man's will determines oft his fate,
And every man must do his share.

Yet some are born to riches here,
And some unto a round of ease,
But judge not by the lives of these.
The truly great in any sphere
Are toilers in life's industries.

Life is itself the only chance
Which God bestows upon a man.
We are all equal by His plan.
Strong men can master circumstance,
"Twas as a toiler Christ began."

—Copyright 1920 by Edgar A. Guest.

comes a tyranny and an autocracy worse even than the rule of force by an individual.

Long years ago when Wisconsin was torn by the attempt of some politicians to steal the governorship by crooked returns, that great jurist, E. G. Ryan, in his argument against Barlow, said there were two governments—one the rule of law without force and the other the rule of force without law.

We have the best example of the former in the United States. The rule of force without law is the rule of the czars and the autans and latterly of the soviet. One is the force of the individual, the other force of the organized few. Soviets will never succeed, we take it, where there is not ignorance as a basis. Therefore, even though it gains a foothold in Germany, it does not need a gift of prophecy to say it will not last.

The vulgar Mr. Chas. Chaplin does not intend to be outdistanced in the race for a position, in the spotlight, following the splendid example of Mary Pickford, who won a headline career across the front page of the Chicago Tribune, he is now in the throes of divorcement.

We have the greatest oil production ever known. We use less than during the war. Yet the price is going steadily upward. Will Attorney General Palmer please touch a match to this case? Or is he afraid of the people the explosion might injure.

Mike Walsh, president and organizer of the "Hobp College" of Chicago, avers that "the 'bo vanished with booze." One more evidence that the prohibition amendment is a cruel and unjust law.

With wonderful self-control Admiral Sims has refrained from announcing himself for the presidency. It would be a merry contest with Secretary Daniels running against him.

President Wilson is credited with having a bomb-proof pocket in which to place the treaty if it comes to him from the senate.

Backward Glimpses

FORTY YEARS AGO

March 19, 1880.—Prof. Jackson's Classical Academy closed today after running a year. Prof. Jackson will now devote all his time to the pastorate of the Emerald Grove churches.—There was a meeting of the business men of the city yesterday afternoon, at which it was decided to raise the $7,000 needed to build the railroad line from here to Afion.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

March 19, 1890.—There was a meeting of the officers of the Rock County Agricultural Society last night in Sec. E. B. Holmstrom's office to decide on matters pertaining to the fair which will be given by the society in the summer. The heads of the different departments were chosen.—William Dooley, Porter, will be marshal.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

March 19, 1900.—A serious conflagration in the business section was averted last night when Mark Bostwick, who was walking along Milwaukee street, near the Hayes block, saw smoke coming from the alley. The back part on the building adjoining the Hayes block was on fire, but was soon put out, without much damage caused.

TEN YEARS AGO

March 19, 1910.—This morning President T. P. Lewis of the Y. M. C. A. received the $5,000 bequest which was left to the organization by the late Levi B. Curle. The check was handed to him by Norman Carle, executor of his father's estate.—The Cardinals won their biggest game of the season last night by defeating the Chicago "Cubs" by a score of 24-13.

Unrewarded Regulars

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN, Director

Janesville Daily Gazette Information Bureau,
Washington, D. C.

New York, March 19.—The United States destroyer Mason, which was placed in commission a few days ago, should have a crew of eight officers and 120 men as its full complement. Because of the necessity of men in the navy its crew in reality consists of three officers and one man.

Between three and four hundred officers have left the navy since the war and a thousand more have made applications for discharge. These are all men in the regular service, not just the wartime volunteers. And thousands of sailors are leaving. The army personnel is dwindling at the same alarming rate.

"Manly Thing" to Resign
Recently a captain, a regular in the army, who was mentioned for distinguished service in France, gave his resigning from the service that "it was the only manly thing to do."

To explain this rather surprising statement he continued: "I have no income aside from my army pay, and it is impossible for me to support my family in ordinary comfort upon that at the present cost of living. I regret having to leave the service, but I owe it to my wife and children."

The other day a non-commissioned officer apologized to his commanding officer for the shabbiness of his uniform, saying that he simply could not afford presentable clothes on his present salary.

He Couldn't Neither
"Well," said his captain, with a wry smile, "you had better look at my uniform before you apologize."

The uniform in question was literally a thing of shreds and patches. It was shiny with long wear, there was a neat but obvious patch on one elbow, and the four strips of gold braid on each sleeve were worn threadbare. Yet this officer has given 30 years of loyal service to his country. He was recommended for special award during the late war, and he recently refused an offer of a ten-thousand-dollar-a-year job in civil life because of his devotion to the navy. Nevertheless he finds it impossible to send his two children to college and at the same time to live with the comfort and dignity which his position calls for and his ability demands.

Fell as If They Were "Goats"
Anyone who is often thrown in contact with men in the regular service cannot but realize the change in their attitude since the war. They are rather in the mood of Kipling's Tommy Atkins who cited the ingratitude of the British public. The sudden slump from the wartime glory to the hard facts of living on inadequate pay, while they see the stay-at-homes receiving all the benefits of their fighting, is making most of the men feel a little as if they had been the "goats" in this war.

The one important subject among the enlisted men is the pay bill. This is particularly true of the new recruits. It was given out in such an authoritative way from Washington that the bill for increased pay for officers and men would pass that many men were induced to enlist by the prospect. In fact, unofficially, they were promised the increase in pay as a Christmas gift. It is the feeling of some of them that they were practically induced to enlist under false pretenses.

Many prominent Americans are actively working for the passage of the bill increasing the pay of the army and navy. It is their belief that a storm of protest would sweep the country if the true state of affairs were realized. A canvass has already been made of the house and senate and a large majority of the members of both houses have stated in writing that they are decidedly in favor of an increase. The uninformed in matters political might think that settled the whole matter, and that the pay bill would be passed without further ado.

Ways of Politician Are Devious
But the ways of the politicians are more devious than those of the plain citizen, and his motives are not always apparent at first glance. Hence the pay bill has been held up for months because of the refusal of six members of the house of representatives to act. These men are Thomas S. Butler, Chester, Pa.; Patrick H. Kelley, Saginaw, Mich.; on the house naval committee; and F. W. Mondell, Newcastle, Wyo.; M. B. Macdonald, Chicago, Ill.; F. H. Gillett, Springfield, Mass., and J. R. Mann, Chicago, on the steering committee.

The house is willing to pass the Kellogg bill which provides for an increase for the men, but not for the officers. The senate on the other hand is not willing to discriminate against the officers, and wishes to have the Wadsworth bill passed which will provide for an increase for officers as well. And as the house but obvious committee is unwilling to bring up this bill in the house the whole matter seems to be deadlocked.

Men Are Getting Out.

But the men cannot be held in the service with the same firmness with which the pay bill is held in abeyance. Representative Madden, one of the pay bill's bitterest enemies, recently came out with the statement that if the officers and men were getting out, they were following this sensible advice with alarming rapidity. Secretary Dandridge, in the meantime, is recommending an extensive ship-building program for the navy, which means that the navy will require more men.

Great Britain seems to feel a more substantial gratitude for her defenders than our politicians do for ours. She has recently granted a hundred percent increase in pay for her army and navy. The United States is allowing the interest on her loan to Great Britain to lapse for two years.

English Officer Dressed Up
So when the smart English officer swanking by he may at least have the sorry consolation that he and all his fellow citizens are in an indirect way paying for all this added grandeur in the army of our ally, even if it is at the expense of our own army and navy.

Among the prominent Americans who are actively supporting the increased pay bill is W. Butler Duncan, famous yachtsman and skipper of the cup defenders that have raced against Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht. The regular army formed the skeleton upon which the wartime army was built," said Mr. Duncan in a recent interview. "The officers of the regular army are men who took the huge raw bulk of conscripts and volunteers and moulded them into the efficient and victorious organization that won the war. As a matter of common sense we ought to pay these men enough to keep them in the regular army.

Old Verse Tells Story
"Here is a verse I ran across the other day which was written in England in 1910:

"Our God and soldiers we alike adore
When at the brink of ruin, not before;
After deliverance both alike required:
Our God forgotten, and our soldiers slighted."

"The cur!" thought I. But the first minute of fright at finding myself without defense, I got so hopping mad at the sheer meanness of the creature, also so pleasing glad at the little compliment he was paying me by admitting this he was afraid of me and a coward in combat—that I had called him to him with a hatpin if he'd shown his face at the door. And at that moment I heard the sound of a latch key working in a door. I thought it was my own, and dashed out and threw it wide.

It was the lady in the adjoining flat. She said, "How these keys do stick, sometimes! I wonder if anybody has been tampering with my lock."

Tampering with the lock! I closed my door without thanking her for the reminder—I had been in the act of getting a new lock when monsieur called me to Mrs. Delario's story.

Oh, if I only had had it death-bed. Then I remembered that other key on Friday night—the key working in my own door that I had assumed belonged to Mr. Man-dew-stair.

No wonder he didn't swear at me when I called out to him and the wrong flat. Mr. Man-dew-stair! I flung on my wraps, telling Mrs.

GRAIN

Chicago Review.
Chicago, March 19.—Cautions on both sides of the market seemed to be governing traders in corn today to be the smallness of receipts and the unfavorable weather tended to prevent any movement of stocks. On the other hand, in view of the recent big advance, few dealers showed courage to work for a continued upturn. Opening quotations, which varied from 3¢ decline to an equal gain, with May $1.53 1/2 to $1.56 1/2, and July $1.49 1/2 to $1.50 1/2, were followed by numerous minor fluctuations, but no decided change.

Outs, like corn, showed no pronounced drift either way. After opening 1/2¢ off to 1/2¢ advance, the market sagged a little and then scored slight gains.

Provisions were stronger but dull. Subsequently, absence of shipping demand from the east, together with opinions that the advance in values had culminated, led to a sharp break.

The sun and winds of March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more Othine is sold in this month. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

Freckle-Face

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of Othine, double strength, from your druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion.

The sun and winds of March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more Othine is sold in this month. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

Not a twinge of pain or soreness before applying, or afterwards. This may sound like a dream to corn-pes-tored men and women who have been cutting, filing and wearing tortuous plasters. Yes! Corns lift off and calluses peel off as if by magic, says this Cincinnati authority.

A quarter ounce of freckle-face costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops directly upon your tender corn or callus, and instantly the soreness disappears; then shortly the corn or callus will be so loose that it lifts off.

Freckle-face dries instantly. It doesn't eat out the corn or callus, but just shrivels it up so it lifts away without even irritating the surrounding skin. Women should keep it on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

LEVIS MAY PLAY AGAINST FAIRIES; HIS TEAM WINS OPENER

APPEARANCE HANGS ON MADISON GAMES

Kahl and Young for Cards—Beloit Will Be Minus Services of Eddie Gharitty.

George Levis, all-star forward of the Lakota Cardinals, as it opened the season this year, may be with the team tomorrow night to smash the onslaughts of the Beloit Fairies in what may be the last of the seven game series with the Gateway city team. Completely recovered from his recent attack of pneumonia and appendicitis, the crack player is in fine shape to take to the basketball court. His appearance with the Cardinals is entirely dependent upon whether his team, the Madison high school, winners of the Whitewater sectional tournament wins today. The game is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the Madison gymnasium. In which event they will be eliminated from the running.

Kahl and Young for Cards—Beloit Will Be Minus Services of Eddie Gharitty.

With Levis will come a chap named Kahl, said to be a fast forward who will be a strong addition to the five. The other men on the Janesville lineup will be Brumm at center and Young and Dalton at guards. Such an aggregation will prove a tough nut for the Beloit Cardinals to crack and will provide the 1,300 or more fans expected to attend the most thrilling game of the year.

Arrangements for this biggest game so far this season are perfect. Special cars will take the 300 fans down from this city who will have one side of the gym reserved for them. Should the Lakotas win tomorrow, the series will be over. If they lose, another game will be played early next week.
